Gold attained the extraordinary price of 1894 on Saturday.

To-day gold has reached 191 1-2. The Journal will doubtless give us the reason for the advance.

The dispatches of Sanday night repre sent Lee as in retreat.

Duhme & Co., of Cincinnati, have been robbed of a large amount of diamonds. The Fremont men, greatly to their cred it, make manly protest again t the despot ic arts of Lincoln and his sattelites.

We have an account of a somewha bloody repulse of a portion of Gen. Grant's forces among our dispatches.

The base surrender of Arguilles, the Spanish refugee, to whom allusion was made in this column a few days ago, i too much even for the Cincinnati Gazette It condemns it without qualification.

It must be gall and bitterness to the Administration, to admit the superiority o the military sagarity of McClellan.

Fifty thousand men were killed and wounded, before Grant was allowed to take the Peninsular route, for the reason that that route was selected by McClellan At last, after all its mean persecution of McClellan, the Administration is compelled to do homage to his military genius If selfish thoughts are to be tolerated a a time like this, it is easy to imagine Me Ciellan's triumph when he heard the Grant had been compelled to take the P nirsular route. Alas! he had to el m be his cow over the dead bodies of by ve men, sacrificed to a partisan jealousy a mear, as anything of the sort on record.

McClellan had advanced to the point where Grant is now understood to be and had sustained but a trifling loss. The desire to destroy McClellan prompted the selection of another route. The result is many days of fruitless fighting with terrific losses. Blood enough spilled to form a river, and spilled in vain.

It will be seen by the afternoon's dispatches, that there is nothing official from Grant since Stanton's Saturday dispatch A substantial success is claimed for Sherman. We have some Philadelphia dispatches, which are not to be believed until confirmed from other sources.
